Swimmer Profile – Yvonne Lovegrove

Childhood

Yvonne was born in 1941 in a village called Monkseaton in Northumberland. A lovely village surrounded by farmlands and only a ten-minute walk to the beach. Swimming and beachgoing was in the family blood as her great, great grandfather introduced the bathing machines to the area. He owned 33 of them. Her great uncles owned the swings and roundabouts on the beach and her great aunt owned the café that was built into the sea wall.

Yvonne's mum and sisters would help in the café, but Yvonne being too young, enjoyed the freedom of playing on the beach. She always says, "some people were born with a silver spoon in their mouth, but she was born with sand between her toes".

The swimming club called "The Winkles" was also built into the sea wall and most of her family were members. Every New Year's Day the swimming club had what they called the breaking of the ice. The North Sea being icy cold, Yvonne only did this once. It is still a tradition. However, these days it has a cult following and people get dressed up in Santa costumes etc.

Doing the usual childhood things like dancing class, brownies, girl guides, singing in choir, it was ice skating that became Yvonne's passion. Bike riding in her teenage years took her around England, staying at Youth Hostels on long trips.

Adulthood

About 1976 Yvonne returned to work (having previously trained as a bookkeeper,) an occupation she carried out until 2006. It was about this time that she joined Armadale Masters Swimming Club. Prior to swimming, her sport was badminton.

Having studied Bahasa Indonesia language as an adult, Yvonne ended up teaching a beginner class at TAFE, mainly for people who wanted to be able to know how to converse when they went to Bali. Camping and caravan holidays around Western Australia have now been replaced by taking holidays staying in hotels.

Adult hobbies were pottery, mosaic and crochet, crochet being the main one. Yvonne runs a crochet for charity group.

Mid 2018 Yvonne took ill and after a few weeks in hospital was diagnosed with a rare auto-immune disorder called Myasthenia Gravis. This causes muscle weakness throughout the body. Because of this Yvonne spends one day every four weeks in hospital getting a treatment called IVIG. Yvonne credits her swimming and swimming friends for being able to cope with this.

Yvonne says she is lucky to have so many lovely friends and a wonderful crazy family.
